Seed Board Appears for 80th Time. That the 18th of March is the be-ginning of spring has been the belief of the firm of Hawson & Whipple for years, in fact, ever since they began nusiness, and on that date their seed hoard has been placed out in front of the store. This morning it will appear for the 80th time. Some years it has had to be covered with olicioth to protect the seeds from snow, but in all of the 80 years this firm has been in Susiness the seed board has never failed to appear on that date.

BREED THEATER.

Taft at Panama, Big Moving Picture.

Unprecedented success is following the big moving picture, Taft at Pan-ama, now on exhibition at the Breed theater. The commodicus theater was again taxed to its capacity with anxious patrons, to witness this splendid picture. It is perfect in every detail, and is one of the most satisfying plctures of celebrated persons now being shown. It will be exhibited again at mattness and evening of Saturday, March 20 Murch 20.

March 20.
The great sensational picture, The Panther, Is drawing many to see its wonders, as are the comedy pictures, entitled Grandfather's Tobacco. The Safe, A Serious Joke, He Can Imitate Anything, and Choosing a Life Partner.

Mr. Cooper sings the little favorite. Trading Sinlies, and Madam Morelle sings Just Someone, and I Dreamt I Dwelt in Marble Halls. An entire change of bill takes place Monday.

Auditorium Next Week.

At Sheedy's this afternoon and evening Howard Hanson and company At Sneedy's tals atternoon and evening Howard Hanson and company will appear for the last time in the foundest farce of the scason. The Introders. The whirl of the vaudeville wheel brings for next week a feature programme with faces all new to Norwich. Prominent among the entertainers is "Merry" Minnis Stokes, with her "Funny Little Folks," an act that is a real novelty, being "a theater within a theater," a miniature stage with pigmy characters all impersonated by Miss Stokes, who shows her artistic versatility by playing a violin sole while representing Kubelik, and singing a grand opera aria while impersonating Lallian Russell.

A comedy juggler who has blazed out a path of his own is Nelson, "the man with the hopping hate." his chief stock in trade being a dozen once shining tall hats, that in his skilful hands seem actually endowed with life. A dainty couple is Wellington Cross and Josephine, singers who have their own original sounes and dencers.

Cross and Josephine, singers who have their own original songs, and dancers who are equally at home in the clog the jig, the reel, buck and wing and step and fancy duncing. Adalr D'Armond & Co, will present

Adal: D'Armond & Co will present the funniest little playiet ever put on at the Auditorium, entitled His Last Race, which has just been added to the Sheedy circuit, and it is a scream from start to finish. The bill is the best ever selected for the Auditorium and the pictures have also been carefully selected, among the films being a selection of the best. A Voice of the Dead, Lost—A New Year's Dinner, Folding Bed, A Duel Under Richelieu, and Life of a Cow-Under Richelieu, and Life of a Cow-

FOETRY.

SING A SONG OF LAUGHTER. Sing a song of Laughter—pocket full of Smiles.

It's what the World is after—beats all other Wiles.

Life's too short for grumpiness—spend your little while Looking for the Beautiful—wearing of a Smile.

See the many Roacs—blooming by the Way;

They'll cover up the thorns and stones—if you say they may;

You've no time for Anger—Life's toe short for Guile;

Look out for the Beautiful—smile.

—James S. Carter, in April Nautilus.

A GIRL WITH VIOLETS,

Think not dear that Love forgets
One sweet spring it knew;
The little girl with violets
Brings a thought of you.
Her golden hair a dream would make;
I buy the violets for your make.

At every rosy turn, to me
The Spring has memories eweet,
To one whose life is Memory
Of violets at Love's feet.

So Spring is but a dream of you.

The garlands that she wears.

Her violets and sometimes too.

Her tenderness of tears.

From this child's hand the flowers I take—take—
The first Spring violets—(or your sake)
—Atlanta Constitution.

THE PILGRIMAGE.

made a pilgrimage to find the collistened for his voice at help tombs. Searched for the print of his immortal feet In dust of broken altars; yet turned back With empty heart. But on the homeward road,
A great light came upon me, and 2 heard
The God's voice singing in a nesting lark;
Felt his sweet wonder in a ownering Received his blessing from a wayside well; Looked on his beauty in a sover's face; Saw his bright hand send signal from the sun. -Edwin Markham, in April Mautilius.
